Explore the glories of Delos, where these lions were masterfully crafted 600 years before Christ.

Istanbul, Turkey

This legendary metropolis straddling the Bosphorus Strait is the only city in the world situated on two continents: Europe and Asia. Its historic areas, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, include the Hagia Sophia, Topkapi Palace and the Blue Mosque.

Pergamon (Dikili)

Built on a hill rising above the surrounding valley, Pergamon, in modern-day Turkey, was an important ancient capital city during the Hellenistic Period. It is home to two of the most celebrated archaeological sites in the Mediterranean, Pergamon's Acropolis and Askleion, which date to the time of Eumenes II (197-159 B.C.), including the famed library that rivaled that of Alexandria, the terrace of the spectacular hillside theater, the main palace, the Altar of Zeus, and the Temple of Athena. In the early Christian era, Pergamon's church was a major center of Christianity and was one of the Seven Churches of Revelation.

Ephesus (Kuşadası)

The Greco-Roman city of Ephesus is one of the world's most dazzling architectural treasures. The beautifully restored façade of the Library of Celsus is breathtaking, and the Marble Way leads to an impressive 24,000-seat amphitheater where St. Paul addressed his Epistle to the Ephesians. According to legend, St. John the Apostle traveled with Mary, the mother of Jesus, to Ephesus, where he wrote his gospel and later died and was buried. In the sixth century, the Basilica of St. John was constructed above his tomb. Today, the ruins and partial reconstruction of this sacred site indicate its impressive size and former splendor.

C'est Bon! CULINARY TRADITIONS™ OPTIONAL EXCURSION:
Introduction to Turkish culinary specialties, culminating in lunch.*

Pátmos, Greece

The small island of Pátmos and its Greek Orthodox Monastery of St. John, a UNESCO World Heritage site, loom large in the history of Christianity. Built in 1088, the monastery is still inhabited by monks who preserve it as a pilgrimage site and place of religious study. St. John the Apostle of Ephesus was known to have been exiled to Pátmos for 18 months and very possibly wrote the Book of Revelation here in A.D. 95.

CULTURAL ENRICHMENT: Meet residents of Pátmos, who will discuss daily life on an ancient Greek island during the specially arranged VILLAGE FORUM™.

Rhodes

The island of Rhodes has been one of the most prosperous and strategic strongholds in the eastern Mediterranean since the Neolithic Period. A UNESCO World Heritage site, Rhodes Town is an extraordinarily well-preserved medieval city, built over a great Hellenistic metropolis. A major Christian outpost during the Crusades, it is the site where the Knights of St. John erected the splendid 11th-century Palace of the Grand Masters.

OPTIONAL EXCURSION: Walk through the ancient village of Lindos and enjoy breathtaking views from its acropolis, perched over 500 feet above the town.*

Santorini

Sail to Santorini, one of the most spectacular of the Aegean Islands, and into its great harbor, ringed by black sand beaches. A cable car rises above Santorini to the town of Fira, whose stunning white walls stand in stark contrast against the dark volcanic cliffs. The picturesque cliff-side village of Oia offers spectacular panoramic views of the island's coastline and the surrounding seas. Far below, in what remains of a caldera, may be legendary Atlantis, possibly lost during a cataclysmic volcanic eruption in the 16th century B.C.

OPTIONAL EXCURSION: Enjoy a specially arranged presentation of local foods followed by a sumptuous tasting menu paired with native Santorini wines at a local restaurant in Pyrgos.*

Delos

The mythical birthplace of Apollo and Artemis, Delos is considered one of the most sacred islands in the Greek world and is as central to Greek spiritual life as Olympia or Delphi. Today it is a UNESCO World Heritage site. The Sanctuary of Apollo is a spectacularly rich archaeological site with remains of three separate temples from the fifth and sixth centuries B.C. Delos' awe-inspiring ruins also include an entire district of ancient houses dating from 700 B.C., the ancient Theater built in 300 B.C. and the House of the Dolphins built in the second century B.C.

See the island's legendary statues from the magnificent Terrace of the Lions, carved from Nákian marble that withstood the blight of wind and sea water for nearly 2,600 years.

Mykonos

According to ancient legend, this island's craggy hills and clefts were formed from the petrified bodies of giants defeated by Hercules. Its iconic windmills, sugar-white cube houses and azure bays epitomize the spectacular beauty of the Greek Isles. Mykonos' "Little Venice" resembles, in design, Italy's famed canal city.

OPTIONAL EXCURSION: Enjoy a panoramic tour of Mykonos including a private ouzo tasting.*

Athens

Birthplace of democracy and home to many of history's greatest philosophers and poets from Socrates to Herodotus, Athens is unmatched in its contributions to early Western civilization. Today, the city's ancient greatness is encapsulated in the spectacular Acropolis, a UNESCO World Heritage site, and the gracefully proportioned Parthenon, a perfect example of Doric architecture dedicated to the goddess Athena in 438 B.C.

*Optional C'est Bon! CULINARY TRADITIONS™ and cultural excursions are available at additional cost and details will be provided with your reservation confirmation.
